

Nima Beheshti
Nb9pp
DS 5001 Final Project
Manifest File

Provenance: The source of the text files for this project came from the Project Gutenberg website and were specifically found under their political writings collection. Here's a link to the bookshelf containing the text: <https://www.gutenberg.org/ebooks/bookshelf/61>

Location: Website link to bookshelf containing the text:
<https://www.gutenberg.org/ebooks/bookshelf/61>

Description: The general subject matter is a collection of political works. The specific collection includes the following works:

- "The Prince" by Machiavelli
- "The Federalist Papers" by Hamilton, Madison, and Jay
- "The Condition of the Working – Class in England" by Engels
- "Utopia" by More
- "Anarchism and Other Essays" by Goldman
- "Leviathan" by Hobbs
- "The United States Constitution" by the Founding Fathers
- "Considerations on Representative Governments" by Mill
- "The Communist Manifesto" by Marx and Engels
- "Politics" by "Aristotle"
- "Second Treatise of Government" by Locke

Some of these files were changed slightly to help with the regex part of splitting the works by their chapter (or whatever they referred to as chapter). These altered docs were "The United States Constitution", "The Communist Manifesto", "Politics", "The Condition of the Working – Class in England", "Anarchism and Other Essays", and "Utopia".

Format: All works are in .txt (text) files